O R D E R:

In the reference 1st read above, Smt. A. Varalaxmi, has made a representation to the Government stating that her husband Sri A. Nanda Kumar, ARPC 1626, expired on 24/02/2009 while in service. After the death of her husband she has made an application to the concerned within the stipulated time ie., within one year. But, the District Collector, Adilabad has rejected her request as she has not submitted the application within the time stipulated. Hence, she has requested the Government to consider her case and to provide compassionate appointment to her as she has submitted all required documents within the stipulated time.

2. In the reference 3rd read above, the Director General of Police., A.P., Hyderabad, in his letter 3rd read above has stated that late Sri A. Nanda Kumar, PC is survived by his wife and a married daughter and that the wife is 41 years old and an illiterate. After the death of the PC on 24.02.2009 the SP, Adilabad has advised the applicant to submit all the relevant documents to consider her case for compassionate appointment. She has obtained all the documents in the year 2009 except her birth certificate which was issued to her on 04.03.2010. Hence she may not have known that she has to submit an application seeking employment within a year of death of her husband she being ignorant of rule. In the process of obtaining all the documents, the prescribed period of 1 year was lapsed by a month. As such, the Director General of Police., A.P., Hyderabad, has therefore requested to consider the case of the individual on humanitarian grounds, as there is no earning member in the family except herself and to condone the delay of one month over and above 1 year prescribed period in submission of application seeking compassionate appointment in relaxation of rules, in favour of the individual.
